

Special Agents of the Tennessee Agricultural Crime Unit (ACU) are professionally trained, fully commissioned law enforcement officers who:

- Enforce state laws and agricultural regulations related to agriculture, forestry, animal health, and agribusinesses in Tennessee.
- Investigate theft of agricultural equipment, timber, livestock, or crops; vandalism of agricultural property; wildland arson; unpermitted or reckless burning; unlicensed operation of agribusiness; livestock welfare; and unlawful transport of livestock in Tennessee.
- Collaborate with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies to serve the citizens of Tennessee.

"The ACU is proud to protect and serve the citizens of Tennessee. Investigating crimes and safeguarding against criminal activity are vital to maintaining agriculture and forestry as the leading industries in our state."
